

Registration begins now for Alabama Freethought Association's annual event on July 4th and 5th! Please help us by sending advance registration notice to Anna Alldredge at writsoon@earthlink.net . Registration is $25 and Box suppers will be available for $10 to those who order them by noon each day.

Thursday, July 4

- 10:00 Registration in Fearn park
- 11:00 Traditional welcome picnic on campground by Wanda & Jonathan Alexander
- 1:00 Darlene Burda & Jonathan Wood bring "Animals of Alabama" the Anniston Museum of Natural History's outreach program. Handle them, learn their heritage and habitat.
- 2:30 Break for social time
- 3:00 Round Table – "Caregiving to someone whose beliefs are different from your own" Assembly Hall
Moderated by Anna Alldredge of AFA (sign up at registration to participate)

OR

- Tall Tales: storytelling workshop with Aleta Ledendecker – Dining Hall
- 4:00 Choice of activities (Volleyball, Paddleboating, etc.)
- 5:00 Supper time (welcome to bring your meal to dining hall) box meals may be ordered at registration
- 7:00 Chuck Miller – Civil rights activist and Regional Director of American Atheists : "The Floor Will Rise" What Secularists believe will improve our society and promote liberty and equality for all people
- 8:30 Pixar film "The Incredibles" in Assembly hall, music at the pavilion, games in dining hall

Friday, July 5

- 10:00 Registration in Fearn park
- 11:00 Lunch on your own
- 1:00 Dr. Tim Townes of UAB, Director of the Stem Cell Institute and Chairman of the Department of Biochemistry & Molecular Genetics : "Stem Cell Therapies for Inherited and Acquired Disorders" Describes how stem cells are beginning to fulfill their potential for healing and regeneration.
- 3:00 Freethought Jeopardy, a crowd favorite from Martin Lewison: Sign-up at registration to play or, be in the audience
- 4:00 Townball: Learn a new game with Martin Lewison at the campground
- 5:00 Supper time (welcome to bring your meal to dining hall) box meals may be ordered at registration
- 7:00 Wayne Tidwell: Ordinary guy from Auburn, worked on Katrina relief, started the "Toomers for Tide" relief effort and the 26 Acts of Kindness for Sandyhook Facebook page. Yet, he had to stay in the Freethinker closet for his kindness to be accepted. Learn what happened when he came out!
- 8:30 Classic film "Casablanca" in auditorium, poetry slam at pavilion, social time in dining hall.

Saturday, July 6

- 8:00 Complimentary Breakfast prepared by Aleta & Carl Ledendecker of Camp Quest fame
- 9:00 Wrap-up and goodbyes