Re: Religious Monument at Madison County High School

Dear Andrew:

This firm represents the Madison County School District and I was forwarded a copy of your August 28, 2014 letter addressed to Dr. McCannon for response. I had an opportunity to visit Madison County High School to see the Red Raiders monument. I was able to discuss the legal aspects of the monument, the Bible verses and Bible citations and Supreme Court precedent with the Board of Education.

The Board is currently investigating options available to it regarding the monument including, but not limited to, removal of the monument or modifying the monument in some manner. Once the Board determines the most economical, and efficient manner to address the monument, I will let you know.

Very truly yours,

Cory O Kirby
