

“The (First Amendment) clause against establishment of religion . . . was intended to erect a wall of separation between church and State.”

-- from the Supreme Court decision in McCullum vs Board of Education

Sixty-five years after McCollum: What is the status of separation of church and state?

To commemorate the 65th anniversary of the landmark Supreme Court decision in the case McCullum vs. Board of Education

A free screening of Jay Rosenstein's Peabody Award-winning documentary, The Lord Is Not On Trial Here Today, the definitive account of McCullum vs. Board of Education

March 7th, 7PM, NCSA Auditorium
Free and open to the public

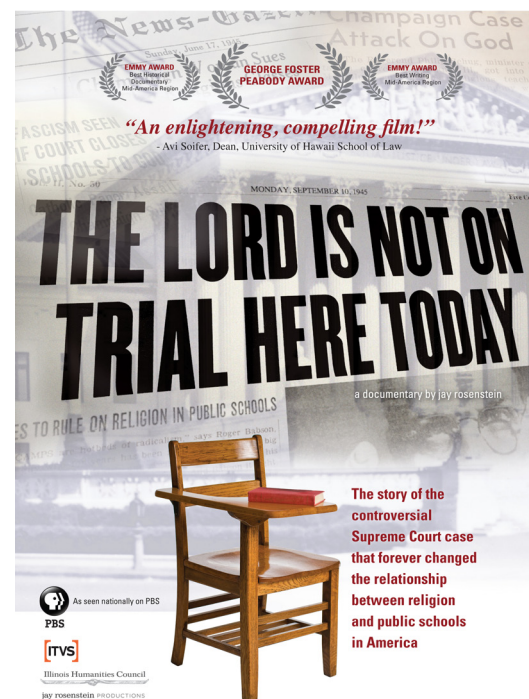

Followed by a panel discussion featuring:

Ken Paulson - President and CEO, The First Amendment Center

Adam Schwartz - Senior Staff Counsel, ACLU Illinois

Annie Laurie Gaylor - Co-President, Freedom From Religion Foundation

Moderator: Jay Rosenstein - Professor, Univ. of Illinois Dept. of Journalism

“An exceptional film. Superb in situating the Court case in a historical context.” - American Bar Association

“A remarkable story of how one citizen’s courage and idealism profoundly affected a nation’s future.” - Video Librarian

“A story that is beautifully rendered. The documentary is just as significant for its resonance in the contemporary moment.” - Chris Benson, Huffington Post

College of media