Freethinkers, Skeptics and Atheists

Atheists have now been found to be the fastest growing minority group. We are no longer being silent and closeted about our beliefs. The question is, how does one transition from being devoutly religious to being an active atheist?

Come listen to a presentation by Dan Barker, the co-president of the Freedom From Religion Foundation and an evangelical preacher turned atheist, tell his deconversion story at York University. The event will take place on Thursday, March 1st, 2012, from 7 to 9 PM in Accolade West room 109.
