MAY REASON PREVAIL

The Freedom From Religion Foundation is working for a world in which . . .

People are more important than dogma.

Religions that teach hate, sexism, racism, trans- and homophobia are not pandered to.

War, violence, terror and discrimination in the name of imaginary gods are no longer countenanced.

Religion stays in its place . . . as a matter of conscience, but out of our laws and social policy.

Basing our convictions about religion on reason rather than faith, tradition or authority, we believe that . . .

There is no god.

There is no sin . . . except ignorance and cruelty.

There is no higher purpose . . . except what we make for ourselves.

There is no hell . . . except what misguided humans make here on Earth.

There is no heaven . . . except the paradise we could create here on Earth.

The only afterlife that should concern any of us is leaving our descendants and Earth — "our pale blue dot" — a secure and pleasant future.
