

YES, THERE ARE ATHEISTS IN FOXHOLES

WWII veteran Joe Cunningham in front of FFRF's monument honoring "atheists in foxholes."

If you're one of the 34 percent of the active U.S. military who is not religious, join the ranks of America's largest non-prophet nonprofit.

A quarter of the Freedom From Religion Foundation's 40,000 members are veterans or active-duty military. FFRF, as the nation's largest association of atheists, agnostics, and freethinkers, is a state/church watchdog working diligently to keep religion out of government.

You've been fighting for our secular Constitution and our freedom — let us fight for you. Join FFRF today and help us stop unconstitutional religious intrusions into the U.S. military and government.
