I’m a retired business owner, volunteer, friend, longtime Alaskan . . .
and a Humanist.

I’m one of more than 75 million secular Americans who are not religious.
The “Nones” (those of us unaffiliated with religion) are now 29 percent of the U.S. population. We’re the largest “denomination” by religious identification!

As a secular voter, I trust in reason, science and America’s secular Constitution.

I want Congress, my state legislature, my public officials and our courts to:

☐ Keep religion out of government and social policy.
☐ Keep religion out of public schools.
☐ Keep religion out of bedrooms, personal lives and health care decisions, including when or whether to have children, and whom to love or marry.
☐ Use my tax dollars only for evidence-based, not faith-based, purposes.

IF YOU AGREE WITH ME, PLEASE VOTE YOUR SECULAR VALUES!

And, please, join the Freedom From Religion Foundation.

Julie A. Olsen, an Alaska secular values voter, honors the 235th anniversary of the signing of the godless U.S. Constitution (on Sept. 17, 1787).

-- Charity Navigator

FFRF has been working effectively
since 1978 as a state/church
watchdog, serving as the nation’s largest freethought association,
with more than 37,000 members.
FFRF is a 501(c)(3) educational
nonprofit that educates,
broadcasts and litigates. FFRF maintains a D.C. lobbying presence and a team of attorneys who end hundreds of state/church entanglements every year. Find out more about why nonreligious
Americans are the real values voters and embrace a humanistic social policy at: ffrf.org/valuesvoter.
