

IN REASON WE TRUST

"I do not believe in the creed professed by the Jewish church, by the Roman church, by the Greek church, by the Turkish church, by the Protestant church, nor by any church that I know of. My own mind is my own church."
—Thomas Paine

"When a religion is good, I conceive it will support itself; and when it does not support itself, and God does not take care to support it, so that its professors are obliged to call for the help of the civil power, 'tis a sign, I apprehend, of its being a bad one."
—Benjamin Franklin

"Religious controversies are always productive of more acrimony & irreconcilable hatreds than those which spring from any other cause . . ."
—George Washington

★ ★ ★ ★ CELEBRATE OUR ★ ★ ★ ★ GODLESS CONSTITUTION this Fourth of July weekend

"The Government of the United States is not in any sense founded on the Christian religion."
Signed Treaty of Tripoli, 1797
—John Adams

"Question with boldness even the existence of a God; because, if there be one, he must more approve the homage of reason than that of blindfolded fear . . ."
—Thomas Jefferson

"During almost fifteen centuries has the legal establishment of Christianity been on trial. What have been its fruits? More or less in all places, pride and indolence in the Clergy, ignorance and servility in the laity, in both, superstition, bigotry and persecution . . ."
—James Madison
