

IT'S TIME TO QUIT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

FAMILY PLANNING

OPEN LETTER
TO 'LIBERAL'
AND 'NOMINAL'
CATHOLICS

It's your moment of truth.

Will it be reproductive freedom, or back to the Dark Ages? Do you choose women and their rights, or Bishops and their wrongs? Over 40 Roman Catholic institutions are suing the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services to halt the contraceptive insurance mandate, endangering the rights of all female employees. In light of the U.S. Catholic Conference of Bishops' war against women's right to contraception ...

- Why are you aiding and abetting a church that has repeatedly engaged in a crusade to ban contraception, abortion and sterilization, to deny the right of all women everywhere, Catholic or not, to decide whether and when to become mothers?
- Think of the acute misery, poverty, needless suffering, unwanted pregnancies, overpopulation, social evils and deaths that can be laid directly at the door of your church's pernicious doctrine that birth control is a sin and must be outlawed.
- If you think you can change the church from within - get it to lighten up on birth control, gay rights, marriage equality, embryonic stem-cell research - you're deluding yourself. By remaining a "good Catholic," you are doing "bad" to women's rights. You are an enabler. And it's got to stop.
- It's a disgrace that U.S. health care reform is being held hostage to your church's irrational opposition to medically prescribed contraception. No political candidate should have to genuflect before the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops. President Obama has compromised, but the church never budes. Instead it is launching a ruthless political Inquisition in your name.
- The louder your church hysterically claims "offense against religious liberty," the harder it works to take away women's liberty. Your church has introduced into Congress a bill to allow dogma to trump the civil rights and private consciences of employees. Cardinal Timothy Dolan, president of the U.S. Catholic Conference, orchestrated a dozen federal lawsuits filed by 43 Catholic institutions attacking the contraceptive mandate.
- The church that hasn't persuaded you to shun contraception now wants to use the force of secular law to deny birth control to non-Catholics.
- You're better than your church, so why stay? Why put up with an institution that discriminates against half of humanity? Why send your children to parochial schools to be indoctrinated into the next generation of obedient donors and voters? Can't you see how misplaced your loyalty is after two decades of sex scandals involving preying priests, church complicity, collusion and coverup going all the way to the top?

Join those of us who put humanity above dogma.

As Thomas Paine observed: "My own mind is my own church." We invite you to free yourself from incense-fogged ritual, from ideas uttered long ago by ignorant men, from blind obedience to an illusory religious authority. Life begins at excommunication.

As a member of the "flock" of an avowedly antidemocratic Old Boys Club, isn't it time you vote with your feet?

PLEASE, EXIT EN MASS.
