Kevin Baker Jesus is a big deal to a lot of people I agree. But that deity can handle himself. Why dont this many people care about our wounded warriors coming home to find a lot of business do not provide parking for them .. Remember without our soldiers there would be NO JESUS pictures anywhere...

Melissa Craig Scherer Public schools are funded by the government, so they can't be religion based. It goes against the whole separation of church and state we have been talking about for the past 2 days.

Sarah Washington my husband says it's because men get sick once or twice a year where as women get sick once or twice a month therefore a man's cold is 10 Times worse than a woman's because a man's immune system is better and it takes a worse flu virus to get them sick

God Fyffe Lockbarn and people have to ask what is wrong in our schools today. So let me guess they r gonna take it down?

...then came upon a sign that said 'Lacey Williams Sturgell' and I was shocked by anything about that.

Lacey Williams Sturgell I don't like the president, he offends me & my beliefs, so are they going 2 remove him also...only in my wildest dreams!

January 4 at 12:19am via mobile · #31

Courtney Beatty I too went to that school! If you don't like the picture don't look at it! It is not offensive and has been there for many years with no issues!

January 4 at 1:20am via mobile · #32

Lacey Williams Sturgell Exactly Court! I'm not understanding this...no 1 can even say how long its hung in that same spot, every1 just knows its always been there, so why now, after all these yrs, why are you going 2 just now decide it offends you! That picture is a part of that buildings past & its history, & hopefully the future! If they do remove it, I would say its not gonna be so happy go lucky in this little town of ours bc so many ppl I know disagree with removal!

January 4 at 1:52am via mobile · #31

Cindy Walker I say who ever did this we need to kick there ass and they need to go back to where ever they came from it sure wasn't Jackson

Cindy Walker this is really making me up set

January 4 at 2:18am · #31

Courtney Beatty I haven't been in the school for years, but I still feel like it is home to me. I will always think of that school as my school even though I graduated in Cincinnati. I was only here for a year. It upsets me that someone would start something now, why not when our parents were young and went there?

school office, you quickly displayed the fact that you have no more than a 12th grade education. For example, your argument about the state motto was disproven rather quickly on this feed. A little advice to you would be to have a spokesperson go the meeting who can better articulate your points, because your letter was rather sophomoric. You should have had Jesus to proof read it.

Peggy House-Zak It is the same battle that has been through the ages, satan trying to stamp out Jesus, the results are always the same, Jesus Christ is the King of Kings, He is the Lord of Lords, and satan is terrified at that name and he will use whom ever will yield their self to his cause, the truth remains the same...satan is a liar Thus is a spiritbaiter battle, really has nothing to do with documents or anything else, what it has to do with that Jesus gave his life because He loves us and wants us to have life abundant life. Those if you who are fighting about a picture, Really, what do you fear? God loves you very deeply and wants His greatest Blessings for your life! The Word says that " Every knee shall bow and every tongue shall confess that Jesus Christ is Lord. Taking down a picture is not going to change that Christ stretched out His arms and died for you. Christ said, you decide, who do you say that I am? Blessings to all!

Good for the super it's about time someone stood up and told these anti-Christ nut cases to take a flying leap off a tall building! This is such a fine upstanding group to be challenging what we do. they are all so proud of their beliefs that they keep a low profile so that no one in their own communities even know they are one of the Anti-Christis and self-glorifying atheists!!

Are you telling me an idiot judge would ban a Leonardo da Vinci rendition of "The Last Supper" hanging in it's place.

I'm certain that portrait is not Jesus. Jesus does not look like that. Jesus was Jewish. That dude in the portrait does not even look Jewish!

effeminate, though. He did have 2 fathers.

Is there a Freedom From Religion Foundation? They spread allegations that it's against the First Amendment but isn't what they are doing violating the freedom of speech for those who believe? Let's be honest and show the hypocritical attitude that is sweeping and destroying America and it's foundations. Should people have the right to believe what they want? Yes. Did I say believe? Yes. Because even if someone claims atheism, they have FAITH that there is nothing. Nobody can prove a negative. In other words, I cannot prove that Santa does not exist. I believe he doesn't. I've never been to the north pole to verify he doesn't live there. We can make inferences based on evidence but cannot completely verify that he does not exist. The same is true with God. Inferences Nicole Gordon Anderson Our country was not founded on any religion. Sorry.

Hannah Nichelle Vance I've went to Jackson for 5 years now. I remembered the first time I EVER saw that picture in the school. Heck, I thought it was pretty awesome to be honest. We were never told that we had to look at the picture && no students use the stairs where the picture is located. It was never brought up by teachers in the school. No one has ever had a problem with this picture until now. It was given by a school group which is not unconstitutional. It's been there for 60+ years. No one told you that you had to look at it. If you have a problem with it then don't go into the middle school. It's pretty simple to figure out. LEAVE THE JESUS PICTURE HANGING WHERE IT IS!!

Glen Smith Separation of Church and State was meant to keep the State out of the affairs of the Church. This is clearly defined in the personal journals and other papers written by our founding fathers who actually penned the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. Christian, Jew, Muslim, Hindu...it doesn't matter what you believe nor how or WHERE you choose to celebrate your religion. What does matter is that the words of those wonderful documents guarantee you freedom to do so without persecution from Kings, Presidents, Rulers or Dictators of any kind...as well as your unlearned and simple minded Facebookers of the world such as those ranting their pothetic atheistic views here. But, alas, I believe in freedom of speech unconditionally unless it lessons or severs my Liberties and Freedoms...in which case I must invoke my 2nd Ammendment Rights upon you and your unjust endeavors. So, therefore, proceed with caution and be certain to research the issues properly previous to forming completely ignorant hypothesis and opinions and giving voice to your illusions of sense in this matter.
