Re: KingdomLife Church Electioneering

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing on behalf of the Freedom From Religion Foundation (FFRF) to report concerns of potential illegal political campaigning by KingdomLife Church, located at 12330 Rolater Rd, Frisco, TX 75035. FFRF is a national nonprofit organization with more than 39,000 members across the country. Our purposes are to protect the constitutional principle of separation between state and church, and to educate the public on matters relating to nontheism.

According to a November 2022 report published by ProPublica and the Texas Tribune, KingdomLife Church Lead Pastor Brandon Burden explicitly endorsed Jennifer White as a candidate for Frisco City Council during his sermon on May 31, 2021.

“I got a candidate that God wants to win. I got a mayor that God wants to unseat. God wants to undo. God wants to shift the balance of power in our city. And I have jurisdiction over that this morning.”¹

The Internal Revenue Code states that to retain their 501(c)(3) status an organization cannot “participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office.”² Here, Pastor Burden, in his role as the Lead Pastor of 501(c)(3) organization KingdomLife Church, breached the responsibilities that come with his church’s tax exempt status. Pastor Burden endorsing a city council candidate and directing his congregation to vote for her is a violation of these regulations.

KingdomLife Church appears to have improperly used its status as a religious organization and 501(c)(3) entity to intervene in political campaigning. Pastor Burden violated IRS regulations by endorsing Jennifer White, displaying a clear preference for one candidate over others.

² I.R.C. Sec. 501(c)(3)

We write to respectfully request that the IRS immediately investigate KingdomLife Church, and ensure that it is no longer receiving the benefits of 501(c)(3) status and that donations made to the church are no longer being treated as tax deductible. The IRS should take appropriate action to remedy any violations of 501(c)(3) regulations that occurred or which continue to occur.

Thank you for your time and attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
