Re: Remnant Church electioneering

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing on behalf of the Freedom From Religion Foundation (FFRF) to report concerns of potential illegal political campaigning by Remnant Church, located at 1973 Deer Trl, Abilene, TX 79602. FFRF is a national nonprofit organization with more than 40,000 members across the country. Our purposes are to protect the constitutional principle of separation between state and church, and to educate the public on matters relating to nontheism.

We are informed that Remnant Church recently donated to the campaign of Scott Beard, a candidate who ran for a seat on the Abilene City Council in the May 2023 election.<sup>1</sup>

The Internal Revenue Code states that to retain their 501(c)(3) status an organization cannot “participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office.”<sup>2</sup> In this instance, Remnant Church has breached the responsibilities of its tax exempt status by actively funding a campaign for public office.

Remnant Church appears to have improperly used its status as a religious organization and 501(c)(3) entity to intervene in political campaigning.

We write to respectfully request that the IRS immediately investigate Remnant Church and ensure that it no longer receives the benefits of 501(c)(3) status and that donations made to the church are no longer treated as tax deductible. The IRS should take appropriate action to remedy any violations of 501(c)(3) regulations that occurred or which continue to occur.

Thank you for your time and attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Samantha F. Lawrence
