

PO Box 750
Madison, WI 53701
ffrfaction.org

October 2, 2023

SENT VIA EMAIL AND U.S. MAIL: bprichard@ndlegis.gov

The Honorable Brandon Prichard
North Dakota State Representative
600 E Boulevard Ave
Bismarck NC 58505

Re: UnAmerican advocacy for Christian nationalism

Dear Representative Prichard:

I am writing on behalf of the FFRF Action Fund (FFRF AF) regarding concerns over your recent social media posts advocating Christian nationalist policies. FFRF Action Fund is the legislative affiliate of the Freedom From Religion Foundation, a national nonprofit organization with more than 40,000 members across the country, including members in North Dakota. We work to protect the constitutional separation between state and church and the rights of America's growing population of nonbelievers.

Over the past couple of days, you have made several disturbing posts on your official social media pages denigrating LGBTQ+ Americans and advocating for Christians theocracy. On October 1, 2023, the first day of LGBTQ+ History Month, you posted, "All schools should have LGBTQ history taught and lesson one should be Sodom and Gomorrah..." Later, you posted:

Every conservative state should put into code that Jesus Christ is King and dedicate their state to Him. Force RINOs to say no to Jesus and then brutalize them in elections. We need a government of Christian, not fakers.

You also posted:

The US Senate and House should have a fitness test every year. Very simple. Every member of Congress must do 5 sit-ups, 5 push-ups, 1 pull up, and submit to the Gospel of Jesus Christ. How many would make it?

Your posts show brazen support for Christian nationalism and blatant disregard for the separation of state and church, in betrayal of your oath of office to the entirely secular U.S. Constitution.

The constitutional principle separating religion from government was the uniquely American vision of our revolutionary Founders. After centuries of bloody religious wars, inquisitions, crusades and pogroms in the Old World, and of the persecutions in the name of religion in most of the original colonies, the Framers were acutely aware of the danger and folly of mixing state and church. They deliberately and purposefully adopted the first constitution in history excluding any mention of a deity.

Every reference to religion in the U.S. Constitution is exclusionary, including: a direct prohibition on religious tests for public office, an implicit prohibition in the godless oath of office prescribed for the presidency and later, in the First Amendment's historic bar of any establishment of religion by the government. The Framers of the Constitution made the United States first among nations to invest sovereignty not in a deity, but in "We the People." The proscription against religion in government has served our nation well, with the U.S. Constitution now the longest living constitution in history, and our nation spared the constant religious wars afflicting theocratic regions around the world.

Christianity and religion in general are inherently divisive. Keeping religion out of the government is a fundamental American ideal, essential for true religious freedom, and has been a tremendous asset to our society. This is a principle to revere. Your advocacy for Christian theocracy is unAmerican.

Your assertion that Christians should take over our government is anathema to America's founding principles and the views of most Americans, including Christians.<sup>1</sup> Many American Christians respect the diversity of our culture, and understand that their fellow Americans may not share their religious values, as evidenced by groups like Christians Against Christian Nationalism.<sup>2</sup> Anyone who respects American values must oppose Christian nationalism, as the two ideologies are fundamentally at odds.

Your advocacy for Christian theocracy is not only at odds with our country's history and laws, but stigmatizes and marginalizes many of your constituents. Non-religious Americans are the fastest growing segment of the U.S. population by religious identification — 37 percent of Americans are non-Christians, and this includes the nearly one in three Americans who now identify as religiously unaffiliated.<sup>3</sup> You represent all of the constituents in your district, including those who do not share your personal religious beliefs. Your posts convey that you consider non-Christians second-class citizens simply because of their religious identity or nonreligious identity. That too is unAmerican.

The First Amendment of the Bill of Rights to our secular Constitution wisely prohibits the kind of Christian theocracy you are advocating for. The Supreme Court has long held that the Establishment Clause "mandates government neutrality between religion and religion, and between religion and nonreligion." McCreary Cty., Ky. v. Am. Civil Liberties Union of Ky., 545 U.S. 844, 860 (2005); Wallace v. Jaffree, 472 U.S. 38, 53 (1985); Epperson v. Ark., 393 U.S. 97, 104 (1968); Everson v. Bd. of Educ. of Ewing, 330 U.S. 1, 15–16 (1947). The Supreme Court has also stated, "If there is any fixed star in our constitutional constellation, it is that no official, high or petty, can prescribe what shall be orthodox in politics,

---

<sup>1</sup> Americans' Views of Government: Decades of Distrust, Enduring Support for Its Role, Pew Research Center (June 6, 2022),

<https://www.pewresearch.org/politics/2022/06/06/values-and-expectations-of-government/>

<sup>2</sup> www.christiansagainstchristiannationalism.org/statement.

<sup>3</sup> Gregory A. Smith, About Three-in-Ten U.S. Adults Are Now Religiously Unaffiliated, Pew Research Center (Dec. 14, 2021), www.pewforum.org/2021/12/14/about-three-in-ten-u-s-adults-are-now-religiously-unaffiliated/.

nationalism, religion, or other matters of opinion . . . .” West Virginia Board of Education v. Barnette, 319 U.S. 624, 642 (1943) (emphasis added)..

This wise separation between religion and government embodied in the Establishment Clause has largely protected the United States from the religious slaughter and persecution rife around the world and historically whenever the government and religion are aligned:

“There is no such source and cause of strife, quarrel, fights, malignant opposition, persecution, and war, and all evil in the state, as religion. Let it once enter our civil affairs, our government would soon be destroyed. Let it once enter our common schools, they would be destroyed.” State ex rel. Weiss v. Dist. Bd. of Sch. Dist. No. 8 of City of Edgerton, 76 Wis. 177, 44 N.W. 967, 981 (1890).

As a state representative, your duty is to support the state and federal Constitutions and to protect the rights of conscience of your constituents, not to promote your personal religious views, much less a Christian theocracy. Your oath of office has charged you with great responsibility over citizens, including those citizens who may not or do not share your personal religious viewpoints. You have shown that you are unfit for this responsibility. You owe an apology to all non-Christian and nonreligious citizens of your district, or you should resign.

Very truly,

Annie Laurie Gaylor
President, FFRF Action Fund
ALG:cal

Enclosures

Rep. Brandon Prichard

@RealPrichard

Every conservative state should put into code that Jesus Christ is King and dedicate their state to Him.

Force RINOs to say no to Jesus and then brutalize them in elections.

We need a government of Christians, not fakers.

6:03 PM · Oct 1, 2023 · 1M Views

Rep. Brandon Prichard @RealPrichard · 48m

The US Senate and House should have a fitness test every year.

Very simple.

Every member of Congress must do 5 sit-ups, 5 push-ups, 1 pull up, and submit to the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

How many would make it?

16

35

2,682

